A message from Miss Richards...

This week, as you will be aware, we had our Ofsted inspection. We were more than prepared and welcomed the opportunity to share everything we do and everything we believe in at Rufforth. I am unable to share any outcomes at this point as they remain confidential until the report is published. However, I would like to take this opportunity to say how proud I am of each and every child and staff member.

The two inspectors spoke to a number of children throughout the day—in pupil interviews, at play time and in lessons. Every child shone.

It is a very intense day for staff and in a school the size of Rufforth, every teacher wore multiple hats; they were observed and interviewed according to their different roles.

Thank you to all parents and carers who gave feedback to the inspectors. Quotes from ParentView were shared with me and Mr Woolford-Mullen during our final feedback. Your comments were most appreciated and very humbling.

We now look forward to a relaxing half term break and an exciting end to the school year.

Wishing you a wonderful half term holiday—in the sunshine!

Miss Richards
